A NOTED BUT UNTOLD WOMAN.

(From the Boston Globe.)

Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham.

The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., who above all other human beings may be truthfully called the "Dear Friend of Women," as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is a woman devoted to her work, which is the outcome of a life's study, and is obliged to keep six lady assistants, to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special burden of suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am satisfied of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says: "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrhoea, irregular and painful menstruation, all ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, Piles, all Dyspepsia and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life."

It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, satiety, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Bloating, Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, cutting pain, weight and lassitude is always permanently cured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

It costs only 25c. per bottle or six for $1.50, and is sold by druggists. Any advice required as to special cases, and the names of many who have been restored to perfect health by the use of the Vegetable Compound, can be obtained by addressing Mrs. P., with stamp for reply, at her home in Lynn, Mass.

For Kidney Complaints of either sex this compound is unsurpassed as a standard tonic. It shows. "Mrs. Pinkham's Liver Pills," says one writer, "are the best in the world for the cure of Constipation, Bloating and Torpidity of the Liver. Her Blood Purifier works wonders in its special line and bids fair to equal the Compound in its popularity. All must respect her as an angel of Mercy whose sole ambition is to do good to others."

What Women Should Know.

We are in receipt of a book of great value to women, published by the Fireside Publishing Company, Philadelphia, entitled "What Women Should Know, a Woman's Book about Women," which contains much valuable and practical information for wives and mothers. It is from the pen of Mrs. E. B. Duffy, the well known authoress of "No Sex in Education," and other works on kindred subjects that have been widely read and generally highly appreciated. We commend this work to the special and favorable notice of the wives and mothers of Shawansee county. In our judgement this book tells women just what they should know, simply what they ought to know, and without knowing which they cannot perfectly fulfill their womanly destiny. In its language it is plain and direct, yet marked by no impropriety, and is such as one strictly modest woman may with propriety use in addressing another. It is, also in its hygienic character and general information quite up to this enlightened age.

In the more social aspects of the subject discussed, the writer is eminently liberal and sensible taking nature for her guide rather than conventional etiquette, while the moral tone of the work is strictly pure and unexceptionable. It ranks as a literary publication far above ordinary volumes of this character, and is worthy of wide circulation.

The book is sold on subscription and we believe a cultured energetic lady would find the agency a paying one in this county. Address the Fireside Publishing Company, 20 North Seventh St., Philadelphia, Penn.

The Republicans in Indiana are more fortunate than their party brethren in some other States. They are united, have a clean-cut issue to contend for, and are showing unusual interest in the canvass for an off year. On the other hand, the Democrats are disorganized, many of their best men are pronouncing against the State and legislative tickets, and there is general disgust with their party's attitude on the temperance question. The Republican outlook in the State is decidedly promising.

WHY WE HAVE SO FEW GOOD RIDERS.

It has frequently been the subject of remark as to the cause of the scarcity of good Jockeys. To be sure we have some excellent riders—Barrett, Evans, Hughes, Barbee, Feakes, and probably half a dozen others, but not more. The secret is explained in the fact that unless a Jockey takes great care of himself constant exercise in the saddle will superinduce Piles of the most aggravating character, that it intensifies, particularly after getting warm in bed, and thus render him unfit for service on the track. However if Swayne's Ointment were used, the worst case of Itching Piles would be speedily cured.

He Didn't Mind the Expense.

"Fourteen dollars for a little lunch for two?" exclaimed a prosperous-looking customer to the proprietor of a restaurant. "Why, what do you take me for?"

"I know it's a little steep," said the steak stretcher; "but you're the only soul that's been in to-day, and my rent falls due to-morrow."

"I'm blamed if I don't really admire a man with a nerve like yours, and I'll pay the swindle!" and with an amused smile the blooded stranger tossed the hash pirate a fifty-dollar note, slipped a dollar out of the change to the waiter, and walked out.

"What a pity we can only have one chance at a man like that," murmured the dyspepsia dispenser, regretfully. But when, the next day, the rent collector threw out the note as a counterfeit, his despair was such that it was all four waiters and the cook could do to prevent his swallowing a bottle of his own alleged wine, and thus putting an end to himself.

"We are persuaded that the ancient Hermes with all the subtle art and natural resources of the Alchemists, was a very poor doctor compared with Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass. Hermes may have been after all only a clever practitioner of the Black Art; but we know there is no humbug in the pharmaceutical chemistry of Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Astonished Barber.

Quietly entering a barber shop, the stranger removed his hat and coat and taking a card from his pocket wrote on it.

"I want to be shaved." A barber stepping forward, read the card, and pointing to a chair, said to his brother artist: "Deaf as a brass-kettle and dumb as an oyster."

The man straightened himself out in the chair, when his manipulator began lathering his face. "This deaf cuss has a cheek like a stone-wall," he said, when a general laugh followed. "Sound his brain, Bob," put in another.

"Yes, stick a pin in him and see if he is entirely dumb," said another. The victim remaining undisturbed the following shots were fired at him by the delighted tonsorial artists.

"He needs a shampoo, his head is dirtier than a cesspool." "Tell him his red hair needs clipping, before it sets his topknot on fire."

"Shave him with a stool-leg, don't spoil your razor on that stubble." "Pull off his boots and air his soiled hose."

"Gracious! what a breath. It smells like a Dutch band music." "He ought to rent that nose for a locomotive headlight," etc., etc.

While all these complimentary allusions were flying about him, the operation of shaving was finished, and the man arose, put on his coat, and turning to the astonished barber, said: "How much for the shave and compliments?"

"I—I—I—I," gasped the astonished man. "Oh, nothing—nothing, call again, excuse"—and as the stranger left the shop, the discomfited barbers swore they would never believe in a deaf and dumb man again, until they had first fired a ten pound cannon about his ears.

Cleanliness Next to Godliness.

Mrs. Colonel Percy Yerger, one of the most fashionable ladies in Austin, ordered Matilda, her servant, to bring in a pitcher of lemonade and some cake for some ladies who had called. Matilda brought the pitcher in one hand and the cake in the other, instead of bringing the cake on a plate.

"Matilda, did you wash your hands before you took hold of that cake?" asked Mrs. Yerger, looking sharply at Matilda.

"Yes, mum." "Are you sure you washed your hands?"

"Yes, mum; I washed my hands on de lumps ob ice I put in de lemonade."

This so disgusted Mrs. Colonel Percy Yerger with Matilda and the lemonade that she put on her sunbonnet, went over to the corner grocery and brought back a bucketful of beer. There is more satisfaction in beer than there is in lemonade, anyhow.—Alex. Sweet.

Marvellous Cure of Stone in the Bladder—Large Stones Removed by "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy."

From the Pittsburg (Mo.) Eagle. Stone in the bladder is a very dangerous ailment; but many most remarkable cures have of late been wrought by "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy"—the invention of Dr. Kennedy, of Rondout, N.Y. A most striking case is now added to the list. Mr. Peter Lawler, of Dalton, Mass., states in a letter to Dr. Kennedy that he had been troubled with bladder complaint for 14 years, and had consulted at different times seven physicians; but nothing beyond temporary allayment of the pain had been worked. Towards the end of last January Mr. Lawler called on Dr. Kennedy. Sounding him, the doctor "struck stone." He decided that Mr. Lawler should first try the "Favorite Remedy," so as, if possible, to avoid an operation. And here is the remarkable result: "Dear Doctor Kennedy—The day after I came home I passed two gravel stones, and am doing nicely now. If you would like to see the stones I will send them to you." This letter bears date "Dalton, Mass., Feb. 18th, and is signed 'Peter Lawler.' The stones, which are as large as a walnut for 'Kennedy's Favorite Remedy' the claim that it is the most successful specific for Stone yet discovered, are now in Dr. Kennedy's possession. Incidentally Mr. Lawler also states that the 'Favorite Remedy' at the same time cured him of a staphylococcus of the bladder, and it is a fact that all ailments arising out of disorder of the liver or urinary organs it is a searching remedy and works marvellous benefits. It is itself almost a medicine. Order it of your druggist. Price $1.00 a bottle.
